

South West Single Reed Day

The big skills event for clarinets and saxophones

Sunday 30th April 2017 from 9.30 am - 4.30 pm
Open to all levels of players and teachers

hosted by Wells Cathedral School

This is a fantastic opportunity for all clarinet and saxophone players to enjoy an inspirational day in our new state-of-the-art performance centre, Cedars Hall. The day includes:

Masterclasses with Royal College of Music professors

Workshops and ensembles for all abilities

Tips on maximising your practice, motivation and performance

Richard Hosford, RCM (clarinet) teaches at the Royal College of Music and is Principal Clarinet of the BBC Symphony Orchestra.

Many of Richard's recordings have been chosen as 'First choice' by BBC Radio 3's Record Review.

Christian Forshaw (saxophone) is Professor of Saxophone at the Guildhall School. He is best known internationally for his work with the Sanctuary Ensemble. He gives regular masterclasses at RCM, RNCM, RWCMD and Trinity School of Music.

Andy Tweed (saxophone) studied at Birmingham Conservatoire and has given masterclasses at the Royal College of Music and Chetham's School of Music in addition to teaching at Wells Cathedral School.

Marie Lloyd (clarinet) teaches at the Royal Academy of Music and at Wells Cathedral School. Marie has a love of playing chamber music especially with the Nash and Gaudier Ensembles.

Ed Leaker (saxophone & clarinet) is Head of Woodwind at Wells Cathedral School and graduated from the Royal Academy of Music. He has enjoyed an international freelance career performing in both jazz and classical settings.

Admission: £35 (£30 for CASS Members)
